

Bill 101

This article was written by a law student for the general public. The Charter of the French Language (S.Q. 1977, c. 5), an important statute adopted by the Quebec National Assembly in 1977, is popularly known as 'Bill 101' from its designation