

Dialogue Theory

What is 'Dialogue Theory'? 'Dialogue theory' is a particular thesis that describes the relationship between the legislative and judicial branches of government. Put most simply, it is the idea that "Canadian legislators are engaging in a self-conscious dialogue with the judiciary." This